Company Profile

History and objectives

Our reality is called EvinTO Wine and was founded in Turin in 2004 as a distribution company of Italian wine abroad, particularly in northern Europe. Our working model is traditional and based on the sale of the best selections of Italian wine divided into price ranges and region of origin.

On the basis of diversifying our offer, and in 2017 becoming part of the Betacom Group, we aimed to offer a better service by opening three new offices in Italy: Rome, Milan and Treviso.

Besides proven technical experience on wine knowledge we have invested in our services:

- we believe in treating our customers with respect by preparing exclusive services with wine. From the most beautiful gift packages with special formats to exclusive bottles outside the catalog.
- we grow through creativity, invention and innovation by offering consultancy for the preparation and production of new wine cards, even seasonal, for international hotels and resorts.
- we integrate honesty, integrity and business ethics into all aspects of our business operation.

Our goals are:

- the expansion in the sector is the setting up for bars, wine bars and restaurants in Italy and subsequent development of key customers.
- increase the company's activities and investments to support development in services, with express deliveries in 24 hours in Italy and less than 4 days throughout the rest of Europe.
- building a good reputation in the sector and in distribution management. Transparent contracts and customer protection as a business partner.
- discretion and seriousness for special supplies of champagne and luxury wine designed and delivered directly by boat or in the nearest available landing place.
- become one of the leading Italian companies dedicated to the distribution of wine in Europe.
